

LEARN FOR LIFE

An education series for adult learners

Thursdays, 10 - 11:00 AM

$5 per session or $20 for the whole series

September 25, 2008 – “Poetry: Classics in English”

A session devoted to famous verse in English, the “Greatest Hits” including masterworks by Shakespeare, Blake, Keats, Dickinson, and others. Attention is given to what makes a poem a classic, but the emphasis is on joyful appreciation.

Location: Chapel Instructor: Lawrence Moe

October 9, 2008 – “My Father's Black Bag: Medical Care During the Great Depression”

Recollections by the son of a Pipestone County country doctor – of the “Summer Terror” (polio), farm house calls, payment in kind, a time before miracle drugs, MRIs, and much more. Drawn from the book The Magical Years: A Boyhood Remembrance.

Location: 5-5-1 Club Instructor: Walter Benjamin

October 16, 2008 – “Biblical Perspectives on Aging”

What do senior citizens of long ago have to tell us that might enrich our lives? Modern medical care was not available, nor were social security monthly checks, nor were condos in 55+ housing. We probably would not want to trade places with biblical elderly folks, but let's look at some examples to see what we might be missing.

Location: 5-5-1 Club Instructor: Dr. Wendell Frerichs

October 23, 2008 – “Medieval Art: The Not-So-Dark Dark Ages”

Beautiful art work tells us a different story of this era. Explore the richness of color, design, and craftsmanship found in medieval architecture, sculpture, and painting. (Illustrated with slides.)

Location: 5-5-1 Club Instructor: Catherine Beck

October 30, 2008 – “Great Music of Faith”

Spend an hour listening to music of the faithful--everything from the Gregorian chants of the Middle Ages through the “Hallelujah Chorus” and into the 20th century.” Session will be followed by hymn sing.

Location: Chapel Instructor: Ronald Nelson

To register, call (651) 632-5330.

All sessions will be held on the Lyngblomsten campus at 1415 Almond Ave., St. Paul.

This series is presented in partnership with Augsburg College's College of the Third Age and is coordinated by Cindy Albing, Education & Resource Coordinator with Lyngblomsten's Home- and Community-Based Services.
