Our Guiding Principles:

For our participants, Lyngblomsten promotes dignity through informed choices for living options, respecting individuality, and orchestrating the best life possible.

For our participants’ families, Lyngblomsten supports their needs through careful listening, traveling alongside them as they walk the journey with their loved ones.

For our employees, Lyngblomsten strives to foster an environment that encourages compassionate caregiving, innovative thinking, problem-solving, and opportunity seeking.

Through our community of donors, volunteers, corporate congregations, and socially responsible corporations, Lyngblomsten encourages the individual to live one’s personal ministry by enhancing the lives of older adults.

A Century of Service

Lyngblomsten was founded in 1906 by 11 Norwegian women who identified the need to care for the elderly who had no one to tend to them in their later years. The women chose the name “Lyngblomsten” to commemorate the national flower of Norway. The organization began to grow by establishing “branches” around the Upper Midwest to build support and raise money for their cause. In 1911 they bought land midway between Minneapolis and St. Paul. In late 1912, the “Lyngblomsten Home for the Aged” on Midway Parkway and Pascal Avenue welcomed its first residents.

Until 1960, Lyngblomsten was an independently operated facility managed by women under the sponsorship of Lyngblomsten branches. In 1960, Lyngblomsten was reincorporated. Its grounds and assets were gifted to what is now the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA).

Today, Lyngblomsten remains a Christian nonprofit social ministry agency affiliated with the ELCA and partnered in ministry with Twin Cities-area Christian churches. The organization has grown to encompass a comprehensive array of healthcare, housing, and community-based services and welcomes people of all faiths and cultures.
